

An aerial photograph of a desert landscape. In the foreground, there is a dense area of scrub vegetation, including many small, yellowish-brown bushes. A winding river or stream flows through the middle ground, surrounded by a valley. The terrain is arid and rocky, with some small pools of water. The background shows a flat, open desert plain extending to the horizon under a dramatic, cloudy sky with some light breaking through.

4. EVALUATION ACCORDING TO NATIONAL HERITAGE

AREA CRITERIA 167

Critical Steps and Criteria for becoming a National Heritage Area 167

 Critical Steps 167

Suggested Criteria 169

 The Area has an Assemblage of Natural, Historic, or Cultural Resources that Together Represent Distinctive Aspects of American Heritage Worthy of Recognition, Conservation, Interpretation, and Continuing Use, and are Best Managed as Such an Assemblage through Partnerships among Public and Private Entities, and by Combining Diverse and Sometimes Noncontiguous Resources and Active Communities 170

 The Area Reflects Traditions, Customs, Beliefs, and Folk Life that are a Valuable Part of the National Story 171

 The Area Provides Outstanding Opportunities to Conserve Natural, Cultural, Historic, and/or Scenic Features 171

 The Area Provides Outstanding Recreational and Educational Opportunities 173

 Resources that are Important to the Identified Theme of Themes of the Area Retain a Degree of Integrity Capable of Supporting Interpretation 174

 Residents, Businesses, Nonprofit Organizations, and Governments within the Proposed Area are Involved in the Planning, Have Developed a Conceptual Financial Plan, that Outlines the Roles for All Participants Including the Federal Government, and Have Demonstrated Support for Designation of the Area 174

 The Proposed Management Entity and Units of Government Supporting the Designation are Willing to Commit to Working in Partnership to Develop the Heritage Area 175

 The Proposal is Consistent with Continued Economic Activity in the Area 175

 A Conceptual Boundary Map is Supported by the Public 176

 The Management Entity Proposed to Plan and Implement the Project is Described 177
