PRESERVATION ARCHAEOLOGY IN THE CLASSROOM

ACCESSIBLE | ENGAGING | FORWARD-LOOKING

The field of archaeology is changing rapidly, and together we can prepare the next generation of archaeologists, advocates, educators, and enthusiasts. Break down barriers, inspire better conversations, and strengthen the future of Preservation Archaeology when you explore and share our free and low-cost resources for educators:

FREE Online Resources and Events

From fact sheets and blog posts to conference posters and videos, enjoy a variety of online resources at archaeologysouthwest.org. Don't know where to begin? Check out our Introduction to Southwestern Archaeology 101 guide to find materials that are right for you and your students.

Need an extracurricular activity? Invite your students to our virtual Archaeology Café series to interact with experts and ask questions in real time.

FREE cyberSW Research Database

Existing collections are the future of Southwestern archaeology. Help your students stay ahead of the curve by bringing cyberSW into your curriculum. The largest database of Southwestern cultural artifacts, sites, and resources, cyberSW combines existing datasets with sophisticated analysis tools—and it's free to use and explore. Show your students that groundbreaking research is possible without ever breaking ground.

$10 Digital Class Packets

Textbooks are expensive and static. Give your students affordable access to a variety of dynamic expert perspectives through Archaeology Southwest Magazine.

Teach from individual back issues or bundle multiple issues together for one low-cost Digital Class Packet. Build from our introductory packet, or create a custom bundle with up to 30 magazines of your choosing. To build your digital class packet, simply email your list of magazine back issues, your course number, and expected student count to kbader@archaeologysouthwest.org at least 3 weeks before your course starts. From there, we'll get you set up with a custom link to your downloadable class packet in our online bookstore where, for only $10, your students can access a semester's worth of engaging content.
