

Archaeology Southwest

with support from

The SMITH
Living Trust

presents the 2020–2021 season of:

Archaeology

From Our House to Yours

The 14th season of Archaeology Café celebrates and shares Archaeology Southwest's current Preservation Archaeology projects with you. Our staff members will bring you in on what we're doing right now to learn more about the past and help protect special places.

Café

To participate, register for free at: www.archaeologysouthwest.org/cafe

Questions? Contact Kate Fitzpatrick by email at kfitzpatrick@archaeologysouthwest.org, or call (520) 882-6946 x 26

All presentations start at 6:00 p.m. MST via Zoom.

10 / 6 / 2020 Safford, Ancient Arizona's Forgotten Cosmopolitan Center

JEFFERY CLARK

11 / 10 / 2020 The Flow of Water and Time: Irrigation Longevity and Social Change among the Lower Salt River Hohokam

CHRISTOPHER CASELDINE

12 / 1 / 2020 Beloved Things: Micaceous Bean Pots and Connections to the Hispanic New Mexican Homeland

SHANNON COWELL AND KELLY JENKS

1 / 5 / 2021 Protected Places: Archaeology Southwest's Conservation Properties and Their Emerging Roles in Preservation Archaeology

JOHN R. WELCH

2 / 2 / 2021 Preservation Archaeology's Role in Responding to Archaeological Resource Crimes

STACY RYAN AND GUEST

3 / 2 / 2021 Should We Stay or Should We Go? Farming and Climate Change, 1000–1450 CE

KAREN SCHOLLMAYER AND SCOTT INGRAM

4 / 6 / 2021 Just What Is cyberSW? The Potential of Massive Databases for Future Preservation Archaeology Research

JOSHUA WATTS

5 / 4 / 2021 Was Sells Red Pottery a Marker of Tohono O'odham Identity in Late Precontact Times? Archaeological and Ethnographic Perspectives

BILL DOELLE AND SAMUEL FAYUANT

Archaeology Southwest

300 North Ash Alley Tucson, AZ 85701

NON-PROFIT ORG
US POSTAGE PAID
TUCSON, AZ
PERMIT NO. 878

«name»

«address1»

«address2»

«address3»

«city», «state» «zipcode»

Register at: www.archaeologysouthwest.org/cafe