PUBLIC MEDIA, EVENTS, LECTURES, AND TOURS

I do a radio-video show with host Scott Michlin, KSJE, San Juan College, Farmington, New Mexico, every month on various topics in cultural work and archaeology. I've done more than 175 shows since beginning in 2010.

I have given public lectures on ancient and modern Pueblo and Navajo archaeology and anthropology for the past 35 years. I have contributed materials to newspapers (Farmington Daily Times and Albuquerque Journal) and magazines (Arizona Highways, El Palacio Magazine).

I lead site tours to Chaco Culture National Historic Park, Aztec Ruins National Monument, Mesa Verde National Park, sites on Navajo Nation lands, and other historic and cultural sites of local and national interest in the Four Corners and Taos areas.
